Ever Golden

Steps
ever onward
through sculpted landscapes rhyming time with treasure Bridges ever across
making the way
because hiking is an artform merging nature with body and soul Trails ever winding
up
over
beside singing rivers
and sleeping giants
contrasting moments of splendor and mystery
no sore feet
no bugs
no glory
Blazes
ever yellow
marking the path taken by others footsteps of unknown friends gifting the way forward a legacy of a different kind what we do together
yellow
yes
but truly
so truly
golden
