

Earn An Award For Hiking All Segments of the Walworth/Jefferson County Chapter of the Ice Age Trail

Here's how it works:

1. Complete this form and send it with your registration fee to the address shown.
2. You'll receive maps of the segments and an information guide for hiking the trail.
3. Record the dates that you hike each segment and mail the completed hiking log to us.
4. We will send you a "Kettle Trekker" award patch and certificate.

Highlights of the Trail

Horserider's Camp: Equestrian camp providing water, restrooms, parking & picnic area.

Stone Elephant: A massive granite erratic shaped like an elephant. Potawatomi Indians considered this area sacred.

Bald Bluff: One of the highest points in Jefferson County.

Oleson Cabin: A two story tamarack log cabin built by an early Norwegian pioneer.

Lake LaGrange, Rice Lake, Whitewater Lake, and many streams run along the trail.

Clover Valley State Wildlife Area: The trail crosses Whitewater creek and skirts the edge of native wetlands.

Artesian Well on Clover Valley Road: Hand dug in 1895; a great place to get drinking water.
